Summary of Business Performance (Comparison with Previous Period)

Summary of Consolidated Business Performance for Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2019

Positive factors Negative factors

P/L

➔ Net Sales totaled 24,915 million yen (an increase of 3.7%) [Record high]

Domestic net sales totaled 13,619 million yen (a decrease of 0.2%)

Domestic sales in the dental business decreased 1.0% because, although new products launched in the market in the previous fiscal year contributed to sales, mainstay products struggled due to intense market competition.

Domestic sales in the nail care business increased by 6.6%, driven by existing mainstay brands for gel nail products, the new brand, and the brand for general consumers.

Overseas net sales totaled 11,295 million yen (an increase of 8.8%)

Overseas sales in the dental business rose 12.1% due to an increase in sales in all regions, offsetting the negative effect of a stronger yen.

Overseas sales in the nail care business fell 20.0% due to a sharp drop in sales in Taiwan, where competitors are taking increasingly aggressive actions.

➔ Operating income totaled 1,814 million yen

Although selling, general and administrative expenses, such as personnel expenses, increased due to proactive sales activities, operating income rose 21.1% due to the effect of lower cost of sales ratio and the effect of higher sales.

➔ Ordinary income totaled 1,709 million yen, and current income totaled 1,201 million yen [Record high]

Ordinary income increased 9.2%, even though the extent of the increase was lower than that of operating income due to the negative impact of exchange rates.

Net income, after deducting tax expenses, increased by 36.9%.

Business performance for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2019, saw sales and profits increase compared to the previous period, while net sales decreased and net income increased compared to the forecast. Slide No. 5 shows the contributing factors for the increases over the previous period.

Net sales totaled 24,915 million yen, an increase of 3.7%. Domestic net sales fell by 0.2%, to 13,619 million yen. Overseas net sales increased by 8.8%, to 11,295 million yen.

In our domestic dental business, sales decreased by 1.0% overall because, despite solid sales of chemical products, where new products contributed, artificial teeth and other mainstay product lines struggled due to a harsh market environment.

Domestic sales in our nail care business increased by 6.6% due to the success of initiatives to adapt to customer needs with smaller sizes and lower prices on products in a market environment characterized by increasingly harsh price competition, as well as the contributions of mainstay gel nail products to sales.

In our overseas dental business, despite the negative foreign exchange effect of 47 million yen, an aggressive sales promotion strategy yielded results and sales were strong in all regions, resulting in a 12.1% increase in sales.

Overseas sales in the nail care business decreased by 20.0% due to a sharp drop in sales in Taiwan, where competition from other companies was harsh.

In terms of income, owing to the effect of higher sales and a lower cost of sales ratio, operating income increased by 21.1%, despite an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses due to active sales activities in Japan and overseas, the acquisition of pharmaceutical approval, and HR investments.

The increase in ordinary income due to the foreign exchange effect and other factors resulted in a 9.2% increase in ordinary income, a smaller increase than that of operating income. However, net income increased by 36.9% to a record-high 1,201 million yen because there was no longer any impact from the 231 million yen impairment loss on goodwill that was recorded in the previous fiscal year for the acquisition of shares of Merz Dental GmbH.

Slide No. 6 shows the main sales and profit increases and decreases compared to the previous period and compared to the forecast.

Here I will explain the increases and decreases compared to the forecast.

Net sales decreased by 809 million yen, or 3.1%, compared to the forecast.

In the domestic dental business, all product lines struggled in a market environment marked by more intense competition with other companies, resulting in a 658 million yen decrease in sales. Although sales increased over the previous fiscal year in the nail care business, they were 154 million yen below forecast. Overall, sales totaled 833 million yen, down by 5.8%.

In the overseas nail care business, sales were down 280 million yen, but in the dental business, sales exceeded forecasts in all regions except for Europe, and the positive foreign exchange impact was 103 million yen. As a result, overseas sales overall increased by 23 million yen, or 0.2%.

In terms of profit, selling, general and administrative expenses decreased, but sales fell, and as a result operating income increased by 76 million yen, or 4.4%, ordinary income increased by 78 million yen, or 4.8% and net income increased by 91 million yen, or 8.3%.

Overall, sales rose 884 million yen, of which sales in the dental business increased by 999 million yen and sales in the nail care business decreased by 113 million yen.

In the domestic dental business, despite contributions from new products, sales of artificial teeth and equipment, including CAD/CAM-related products, were negative due to heightened market competition. This resulted in an overall sales decrease of 126 million yen, down by 1.0%.

In our overseas dental business, favorable sales of our mainstay product lines in all regions, including chemical products and artificial teeth, led to an overall sales increase of 1,126 million yen, or 12.1%.

In the domestic nail care business, efforts to respond to customer needs were a success and sales of mainstay gel nail products, such as L•E•D Gel Presto, were strong, resulting in a sales increase of 95 million yen, or 6.6%.

In our overseas nail care business, sales fell heavily in Taiwan, where competition from other companies had worsened, resulting in a 208 million yen, or 20.0%, decrease in sales.

Slide No. 10 shows overseas sales by region compared with the previous period.

In North and Latin America, our mainstay chemical products and abrasives remained strong and sales of artificial teeth increased, offsetting the negative foreign exchange effect. This drove sales up by 208 million yen, or 7.9%.

In Europe, in addition to our mainstay chemical products, cement products were robust, offsetting a negative foreign exchange effect. As a result, sales increased by 174 million yen, or 4.2%.

In Asia and Oceania, overall sales increased by 533 million yen, or 14.8%.

Looking by area within this region, in China almost all product lines, and particularly our mainstay artificial teeth, contributed to sales, and the foreign exchange effect was positive. This resulted in a sales increase of 411 million yen, or 23.2%.

In other Asian markets, all product lines were strong, particularly our mainstay artificial teeth, so despite negative sales growth in the nail care business and the negative foreign exchange effect, sales increased by 121 million yen, or 6.7%.

Slide No. 11 shows sales and operating income by segment compared to the previous period and the forecast.

Net sales were as described before. Operating income increased by 316 million yen year on year and by 76 million yen against the forecast.

The increase in income from the previous period is mainly attributable to the increase in sales in the dental business and the improvement in the cost of sales ratio. The increase in income against the forecast mainly resulted from the decrease in sales, general and administrative expenses.

Slide No. 12 shows contributors to the change in operating income compared to the previous period.

Operating income increased by 316 million yen, or 21.1%, year on year.

This increase was primarily because, although sales, general and administrative expenses increased due to proactive sales activities in Japan and overseas aimed at expanding business, these activities yielded results and led to higher sales and an improved cost of sales ratio.

Domestic net sales will total 14,408 million yen (an increase of 5.8%)

■ In the dental business, we expect sales to increase by 5.3% (+632 million yen) due to the pursuit of sales activities focused on CAD/CAM-related products, for which demand is expected, and mainstay areas, in addition to the development of activities to supply information to dental care workers.

<New product sales: 3,356 million yen, or 19.4% of non-consolidated net sales>

■ In the nail care business, we expect sales to increase by 9.1% (+140 million yen) due to higher sales, primarily for new brands and mainstay gel nail products.

Overseas net sales will total 11,781 million yen (an increase of 4.3%)

■ In the dental business, sales are expected to increase by 5.6% (+590 million yen) as we continue to expand the sales network, strengthen affiliations with other companies, and raise the speed of business expansion overseas.

Slide No. 16 shows the business forecast for the fiscal year ending March 2020, compared to the previous period.

We expect net sales to increase 5.1% year on year, to 26,190 million yen.

Broken down, domestic net sales will be 14,408 million yen, an increase of 5.8%, and overseas net sales will be 11,781 million yen, an increase of 4.3%.

In our domestic dental business, we will focus sales activities on CAD/CAM-related products, where demand is expected, and mainstay areas, and will also develop activities to provide information to dental professionals.

In our domestic nail care business, we will strive to further promote sales of ageha, a new brand, and gel nail products such as L•E•D Gel Presto.

In the overseas dental business, we will continue to expand our sales network, strengthen partnerships with other companies, and accelerate business development overseas.

In our overseas nail care business, we will continue to strengthen sales activities, especially in the American and Taiwanese markets. In terms of income, although we will step up investment for future growth, including personnel costs, and selling, general and administrative expenses will increase due to proactive investment in sales activities, the effect of higher sales plus improvement in the cost of sales ratio is expected to cause operating income to increase by 13.4%.

Also, we expect ordinary income to increase by 13.6% and net income to increase by 14.7%.

Slide No. 23 shows the anticipated impact of foreign exchange fluctuations of major currencies such as the US dollar and euro in the fiscal year ending March 2020.

Slide No. 24 shows trends for the sales ratio of new products.

Shofu defines new products as products launched within the past three years. Our aim is for the sales ratio of new products to be 15% of total sales.

We attach importance to the expansion of new product sales as an indicator of the company's collective strength, including R&D capabilities and sales ability.

After achieving our target during the three years from the fiscal year ended March 2014, we fell short of the 15% mark from the fiscal year ended March 2017 to the fiscal year ended March 2018, but achieved the target in the previous fiscal year ended March 2019.

In the fiscal year ending March 2020, we expect to reach 19.4% thanks to the contribution to sales throughout the year of new products launched in the previous period, plus the effect of new products launched in the current fiscal year.

Going forward, we will strive to maintain a ratio of 15% or higher by increasing sales of new products, especially new products developed in-house.

Trends for Gross Profit Margin Rates

Slide No. 25 shows trends for gross profit margin rates.

We will pursue a higher profit margin from volume effects and by reducing costs through production relocation.

Slide No. 26 shows trends for overseas sales and overseas sales ratios.

Overseas sales have increased every year since the fiscal year ended March 2010. Going forward, we will continue to shift the allocation of management resources to overseas markets to a large extent with the aim of further expanding overseas sales.

This graph emphasizes the dental business overseas sales ratio, shown in orange.

Summary of Consolidated Business Performance for Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 2019

Forecast of Consolidated Business Performance for Fiscal Year Ending March 31, 2020

Future Business Environment and Medium- and Long-term Business Strategies

Domestic dental market

- Rising demand in aesthetic and preventive fields
- Decrease in population and occurrence of cavities
- Maintenance of a certain market scale
- Significant growth is unlikely

Overseas dental market

- Existence of enormous market centered on developed nations
- Economic growth and rising living standards in regions worldwide, particularly developing nations
- Demand for dental care increasing dramatically

Slide No. 28 shows business environment awareness in the domestic and overseas markets.

Considering the domestic market first, the present situation for dentistry is that even though the elderly population is increasing, this does not necessarily translate into increases in medical charges.

Looking ahead, rising awareness of oral health is expected to foster the spread of the aesthetic, preventive, and oral health fields and to increase demand related to periodontal disease. With the decrease in population and the occurrence of cavities, however, even if the domestic dental market were to maintain a certain market scale, significant growth is unlikely.

Overseas, however, there is a market that is currently around 13 times the size of the domestic market. In addition to this, when considering the economic growth and rising living standards in regions worldwide, including developing nations, demand for dental care is anticipated to increase dramatically.

Even accounting for the differences in price level, Shofu believes that in 10 years, the global dental market could grow to 20 times or more the size of the Japanese dental market.

Vision for our company: Medium-to Long-term Basic Policy

Future Business Environment and Medium-and Long-term Business Strategies

Strive to expand the overseas business by dramatically shifting the allocation of management resources to overseas markets.

- Group net sales: 50 billion yen
 <Domestic sales: 17 billion yen; overseas sales: 33 billion yen>
- Group operating income: 7.5 billion yen
 (Operating profit margin: 15%)

Pursue globalization in every department, function (R&D, production, and sales), personnel, and by extension the company's overall management.

SHOFU INC.

29

Slide No. 29 shows the vision for our company to pursue over the medium- to long-term.

Since its establishment, Shofu has pursued its business as a comprehensive manufacturer of dental materials and equipment in line with its Corporate Philosophy of “Contribution to dentistry through innovative business activities.” However, with an overseas market at least 13 times the size of the domestic Japanese market, Shofu’s contribution and presence to date has been insufficient.

There are a variety of opinions on how to define “contribution” and “presence.” Shofu takes net sales as the barometer of “contribution” and considers “presence” as being among the top 10 in the world.

Accordingly, while maintaining and expanding our business base in Japan, we will strive to expand our overseas business by dramatically shifting the allocation of management resources to overseas markets. By so doing, we aim to achieve group net sales of 50 billion yen and operating income of 7.5 billion yen and to raise our contribution to and presence in dentistry worldwide.

HR	✓ Development of human resources and securing the skilled employees

SHOFU INC.

30

Based on that view, we formulated the Third Medium-term Management Plan, which covers the period up through the fiscal year ending March 2021. Slide No. 30 shows an overview of the plan.

In the fiscal year ending March 2021, the last year of the plan, our main goals are to achieve Group net sales of 29.2 billion yen, an operating profit margin of 8.0%, and an ROE of 6%.

Toward the achievement of these goals, we will principally focus on carrying out our key issues with greater speed over the next three years. As I just mentioned, we intend to actively make use of M&As and cooperation with outside organizations to increase speed.

I will now explain the specific efforts that we will make with respect to each issue.

Specific Efforts – Research and Development

Future Business Environment and Medium- and Long-term Business Strategies

Development and introduction of new products that match the local demands

Developing products with a worldwide vision

Developing new products for regions' middle-class and high-volume segments

Developing products with the goal of creating markets in new fields

Trend in R&D investment

Active investment in R&D is continuing.

SHOFU INC.

31

Slide No. 31 shows priority efforts related to research and development.

Shofu aims to pursue global growth as an R&D-driven company. Going forward, we will continue to develop products with a worldwide vision.

In addition to that, from here on we will also develop new products that match local demands, targeting the middle-class and high-volume segments.

Furthermore, as well as opening up new business fields related to CAD/CAM, we have also begun selling implants developed in-house and produced in Japan.

✧ Relocation of production base and expansion of offshore production

Further expand the market share of our time-honored specialties such as artificial teeth and abrasives by enhancing price competitiveness and reducing costs.

➡ Effectively utilizing existing domestic factories

Domestic manufacturing Group companies

Shiga Shofu (Shiga)

Shofu products kyoto (Kyoto)

Nail Labo (Saitama)

Principal issues and purpose of repositioning of production

- 1) limited productions capacity of SHOFU Headquarters
- 2) high production costs in Japan
- 3) currency fluctuations
- 4) high shipping costs for hazardous and heavy goods
- 5) better delivery service to users
- 6) high tariff

➡ Expanding overseas production

Overseas manufacturing Group companies

Shanghai Shofu Dental Materials Co., Ltd. (China)

Advanced Healthcare Ltd. (UK)

Merz Dental GmbH (Germany)

Slide No. 32 shows priority efforts related to production.

With respect to production, we will relocate production bases by effectively utilizing existing domestic factories and expanding overseas production in an effort to enhance price competitiveness through increased production volume and cost reductions.

Specifically, at our domestic manufacturing subsidiaries, we will transition away from production at the Shofu headquarters through technology transfers and facilities enlargement as well as construction of new factories.

Overseas, meanwhile, since the acquisition of the German artificial teeth manufacturer Merz Dental and the expansion construction of the factory was completed in March this year, we will increase its utilization as a production base in Europe while also considering the establishment of production bases in other regions.

Slide No. 34 shows priority efforts related to sales.

The most important challenge both in the domestic and overseas markets, is the need to establish a system for Shofu's products to earn firm recognition among the dental professionals who are our end customers.

Specific efforts overseas include the establishment of a local subsidiary in Singapore and the establishment of bases in Mexico, Italy, and Taiwan in order to strengthen sales activities in each of those regions. We will also increase utilization of Merz Dental's sales network.

Furthermore, we established sales companies in Brazil and India. Going forward, we will gradually develop and enhance our sales network in key countries and regions.

SHOFU INC.

Slide No. 36 shows our basic policy and priority efforts related to the nail care business.

Price competition is becoming increasingly intense in today's business environment compared to when we entered the nail care business in earnest in 2008. While the business has not reached the scale we had initially imagined, we have built an integrated system for working on everything from product development to manufacturing and sales, and we are striving to stabilize our management base and streamline operations.

Moreover, in addition to offering products to professional manicurists, we are developing products for general consumers, and have established a joint venture in Taiwan, launched a collaboration with a noted manicurist, and are making other efforts to develop the market from both the product development and sales angles.

Slide No. 39 shows principle targets under the Medium-term Management Plan for fiscal year 2018 – 2020.

We expect sales to decrease by 1,229 million yen, or 4.7% in the fiscal year ending March 2020 due to delays in progress in the dental business in Japan and in Europe and the nail care business in other Asian countries relative to targets for that fiscal year in the medium-term management plan. However, the Company and Group companies expect to achieve the medium-term management plan targets on an income basis due to efforts to use operating expenses for the optimal cost vs. benefit effect.

We expect net sales and income in all categories to reach record highs in the fiscal year ending March 2020.
